Re: *United States v. Steven Klein
Case No.: 19 Cr. 375

Dear Judge Seibel,

I respectfully request a modification of Steven Klein's bail conditions so that he may visit his sister in New Hampshire.

As the Court may recall, Mr. Klein was sentenced on June 16, 2021 and is scheduled to self-surrender to the Bureau of Prisons by 2pm on September 8, 2021. He would like permission to travel to his sister's home in New Hampshire on August 6 and return August 9. If approved, he would provide an itinerary to Pre-Trial Services prior to his trip. Additionally, he would like to travel to his sister's home sometime after the aforementioned period prior to his surrender date.

As a result, I respectfully request a bail modification of Mr. Klein's bail conditions so that: (1) he may travel to his sister's home during the above mentioned period of time, and (2) any future requests to travel to his sister's home in New Hampshire is solely authorized by Pre-Trial Services, without the need for court intervention.

Pre-Trial Services has no objection to these requests. The Government has no objections to these requests as well, so long as Mr. Klein provides Pre-Trial services an itinerary prior to his trip(s).
